

Diana G. Ratcliff - Associate

In 1981, Diana G. Ratcliff received a bachelor's degree in Dental Hygiene from the University of Southern California, magna cum laude. She practiced dental hygiene for many years in general dentistry and periodontal offices.

In 1992, Ms. Ratcliff established a consulting successful company, Compliance Coordinators, to assist medical and dental employers with OSHA and regulatory compliance. Over the years, she has consulted with hundreds clients and now lectures to professional groups on Infection Control and The Dental Practice. Ms. Ratcliff is a registered continuing education provider, licensed by the Dental Board of California.

Ms. Ratcliff graduated from San Fernando Valley College of Law in 2003, with highest honors. She now specializes in defending dental and medical malpractice claims, as well as claims relating to employment law. Her clinical experience in dentistry gives her a unique perspective, which clients appreciate.